NO. 15 LSU & NO. 2 OHIO STATE SQUARE OFF IN ROUND OF 16

The No. 15-ranked LSU men's tennis team will square off with No. 2 Ohio State in the NCAA round of 16 Thursday morning at 11 a.m. at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex hosted by the University of Georgia. The Tigers (18-6) and Buckeyes (29-1) met earlier this season, Feb. 24, where the Buckeyes squeezed by with a 4-2 score. The winner will face either Illinois or Ole Miss in the quarterfinals. LSU faced both teams earlier this season. LSU beat Illinois in thrilling fashion, 4-3, on March 20 in Baton Rouge and lost a hard fought match, 4-3, at Ole Miss on March 30..

Tigers' NCAA Tournament History

LSU holds a 26-23 all-time record in the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers have reached the tournament 24 times, which ranks second in the SEC behind

Georgia (29.) The Tigers were bounced from the tournament last season by Minnesota, 4-2, in the first round. Head coach Jeff Brown has brought the Tigers to the tournament each year he has led the team and reached the semifinals in his first two years (98', 99'). This season marks the sixth time in Brown's ten years as coach that the Tigers have reached the round of 16.

About the Buckeyes

Under head coach Ty Tucker, the Buckeyes boast an impressive 29-1 record this seasons. Their only loss came against No. 1 Georgia in teh finals of the ITA Team Indoor Championships in February.

The Buckeyes defended their Big Ten Tournament title in April by defeating Illinois in the final. The Buckeyes were also the 2007 regular-season league champions.

LSU Falls in SEC Semifinals

The Tigers hosted the SEC Tournament from April 19-22. The Tigers beat the No. 25-ranked Tennessee Volunteers, 4-2, in the quarterfinals. LSU gave a valiant effort in the semifinals against top-ranked Georgia but fell by a 4-1 score. LSU was the only team in the tournament to capture a win in either singles or doubles against the Tournament Champion Bulldogs.

Booras, Bryan Honored by ITA

Associate head coach Mark Booras and senior Danny Bryan were recently honored by the ITA. Booras was named Southeast Assistant Coach of the Year and Bryan received the Southeast Arthur Ashe Award for Leadership & Sportsmanship.

Four Tigers Reach NCAA Individuals

LSU's Danny Bryan, Kevin Dessauer, Colt Gaston and Ken Skupski were selected to compete in NCAA Individual Championships later this month in Athens, Ga. on the University of Georgia's campus. Bryan and Skupski will compete in the singles portion while the teams of Bryan/Gaston and Cluskey/Skupski will compete in doubles. Bryan and Gaston received the No. 4 seed in the tournament.

The singles and doubles competition will be conducted May 23-28 at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex, following the conclusion of the team championship (May 17-22).

Academic Achievement

The NCAA honored the Tigers this season for its latest Academic Progress Rate score. The Tigers scored a perfect APR of 1000 in the latest report by the NCAA. The NCAA recognized college sports teams from around the country that achieved an APR score in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports. The public recognition awards by the NCAA are part of a broad Division I academic reform effort. The LSU men's tennis team is one of only 10 sports teams out of 236 squads in the entire Southeastern Conference that were recognized for academic achievement by the NCAA, and it is the only men's tennis team in the SEC to achieve the honor. A total of 839 teams from across the country were recognized. The NCAA consists of 6,110 Division I sports teams.

Three Tigers Receive SEC Honors

Ken Skupski and Danny Bryan were selected First-Team All-SEC this season. Bryan was also selected to the SEC Community Service Team. Kevin Dessauer was chosen as the SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year and made Second-Team All-SEC.

Doubles Dominance

The Tigers hope to continue their strong doubles play in the NCAA Championships. The Tigers have swept the doubles portion 11 times this season. Additionally, the Tigers have won the doubles point in 19 of their 24 matches. The duos of Bryan and Colt Gaston, and James Cluskey and Skupski have both notched twenty wins this season. Bryan and Gaston have won 33 of their last 36 matches. Cluskey and Skupski have won seven of their last eight.

Zelezny Comfortable at Home

Newcomer Jan Zelezny has been dominant at LSU's Robinson Tennis Stadium. The 6-foot junior boasts a 13-2 record at the "Dub" this season. The Czech Republic native has compiled a 21-11 record this season.

Climbing the Charts

LSU's co-captains, Bryan and Skupski, continue to climb LSU's singles all-time win list. Skupski sits at No. 4 on the list with 102 victories. Bryan has totaled 84 wins during his career, which places him tied for 14th with former Tigers Dan Kiernan, Gus Fernandez and Jason Hazely.
